

HOW TO GAIN A MOTORSPORT LICENCE

1. Join a club.
2. Decide what level of licence you need and follow the steps listed:

M Grade Licence

This licence allows you to do all the clubsport events including motorkhana, autocross, sprints (including at tracks such as Taupo), hillclimbs, rallysprints and drifting events.

There is a short test for an M grade motorsport licence so you need to study the Drivers Guide, which you will find at:

<http://www.motorsport.org.nz/sites/default/files/motorsport/documents/Drivers%20Guide%202012.pdf> – or just use the site search tool and search for “Drivers Guide”

Then you need to take the test - so ring the number below and set it up.

R Grade Licence

Initially issued as an R1 Grade this allows you to compete in all clubsport events and National Rallies (except those rallies where MNZ deem it a requirement for an R2 licence).

R1 Grade obtained by gaining a pass in the R Grade licence examination. You should study as noted below:

1. National Sporting Code
2. Schedule P – Penalties
3. Appendix Two Schedule A – Driver and Vehicle Safety

Particularly Parts I - V and Part VIII
Appendix 1 - Schedules D, L and P
Appendix 2 - Schedule A
Appendix 3 Schedule R and any Addenda (in its entirety)

C Grade Licence

Initially issued as a C1 Grade this allows you to complete in all clubsport events and National Race events (except those where MNZ deem it a requirement for a C2 licence).

C1 Grade obtained by gaining a pass in the C Grade licence examination. You should study as noted below:

1. National Sporting Code
2. Schedule P – Penalties
3. Appendix Two Schedule A – Driver and Vehicle Safety

<http://www.motorsport.org.nz/resources/motorsport-manual>

Particularly Parts I - V and Part VIII
Appendix 1 - Schedules D, L and P
Appendix 2 - Schedule A
Appendix 4 Schedule Z - Standing Regulations Applicable to all Races (in its entirety)

The version of the manual on the MNZ website is live and up to date with all amendments, although amendments are also shown separately.

To take the applicable test, ring Linda Loughlin on 07 578 0479wk or 07 578 4459hm to make a time.
